

Airborne Hospital 2026

Do you want to know what went on in a British emergency hospital in September of 1944?

From the 17th to the 19th of September, the Concert hall in Oosterbeek will be transformed into a living museum with vehicles, weapons, medical equipment and uniforms from 1944.

A way to experience the history.

Immerse yourself in an authentic environment, where reenactors will demonstrate how an emergency hospital of the British Airborne troops functioned during the battles in and around Oosterbeek.
